

How does the school allocate resources to children with special educational needs?

The school is allocated a fixed amount of money each year specifically for children with SEND, some of which is spent on resources.

We work with a range of external agencies who advise us as to the best provision required to meet each special educational need.

In addition, every classroom is set up to support children with barriers to learning using a range of multi-sensory resources.

Morning activities
Register	Assembly	Literacy	Break Time	Mathematics	Circle Time	Lunch Time
Register	Reading	Music	Science	Investigation	P.E.	Home Time

